Timing will begin on the first note of music, the first vocal command or the first movement and stop with the last note of the music or when all squad members come to a stationary position.

6. CODE OF CONDUCT

- A. WIUC encourages and supports sportsmanship, integrity and fairness among participants and coaches in all facets of cheerleading and dance including, but not limited to, team/squad practice and performance. We strive to uphold the highest standards and promote this to the best of our abilities and believe that coaches are instrumental in promoting and instilling this among their respective team members.
- B. To ensure the most positive experience for all attendees, WIUC asks that the following Code of Conduct be adhered to during all Championship:
 1. Any questions or concerns that affect a team's performance or experience must be communicated by the coach to the Head Judge or designated WIUC Official to discuss the situation with the coach.
 2. Participants, coaches, or spectators are prohibited from contacting the Judges during the competition.
 3. Judges' rulings are final related to deductions, final team placements and legalities.
 4. Any unruly, aggressive, or belligerent behavior by participants, coaches or spectators toward any other attendee or Event Staff will result in a deduction, potential team disqualification, removal from the event and/or barred participation from future WIUC Championships.
 5. WIUC reserves the right to remove any persons from a competition for unsafe or unsportsmanlike conduct.
- C. The choreography, music and clothing must be respectful of the audience and the participants. Are not permitted aspects, behaviors, language, movements or actions violent, vulgar, racist or offensive
- D. Remember: coaches are role models and need to set positive examples; Cheerleaders should strive to promote good sportsmanship

7. SPORTSMANSHIP

- A. All participants agree to conduct themselves in a manner displaying good sportsmanship throughout the competition with positive presentation upon entry and exit from the performance area as well as throughout the routine.
- B. The advisor and coach of each team are responsible for seeing that team members, coaches, parents, and other persons affiliated with the team conduct themselves accordingly. Severe cases of unsportsmanlike conduct are grounds for disqualification.
- C. When a coach is in discussion with an official, other coaches, athletes, and parents/spectators, they must maintain proper professional conduct. Failing to do so may result in a 1-point penalty, removal of coach, or disqualification.
- D. Additionally, athletes and coaches who do not comply with the face covering requirement may be assessed an unsportsmanlike deduction of 1 point.

8. JUDGING PROCEDURES

The judges for the event will be appointed at the sole discretion of the WIUC. The judges will score each team according to the judging criteria to determine their total score. Judges scores will be averaged together to determine the overall team score. The judges' score will be combined with deductions taken off the total score.

The jury will be composed of technical / coach / judges belonging to the Federation of Cheerleading and Gymnastics, to ensure the respect and objectivity, and to provide a professional opinion on the various performances.

9. DISQUALIFICATION

Any team that does not adhere to the terms and procedures of these "Rules and Regulations" will be subject to disqualification from the competition, will automatically forfeit any right to any prizes or awards presented by the competition.

10. FINALITY OF DECISIONS

Judges decisions are final. No discussion with judges will be permitted. A formal submission is required on all questions/clarification.

By participating in this Championship, each team agrees the decision by the judges will be final and that the results may only be reviewed for clarification. Each team acknowledges the necessity for the judges to make prompt and fair decisions in this competition and each team therefore expressly waives any legal, equitable, administrative, or procedural review of such decisions.

11. HOW TO HANDLE PROCEDURAL QUESTIONS

A. RULES & PROCEDURES

Any questions concerning the rules or procedures of the competition will be handled exclusively by the director/coach of the team and will be directed to the Competition Director. Such questions should be made prior to the event.

B. PERFORMANCE

Any questions and/or criticism about the organizational part of the Cheerleading and Cheerleading Dance Contest and about the routine scores have to be filled and send by email after the end of the competition: info@wiusc.com

Questions regarding another team and/or their performance will not be allowed.

12. UNIFORM

Cheer uniform must be worn: top, skirt, shorts, trousers, dress, socks and trainers/pumps
Jewels are prohibited.

13. SPOTTER

WIUC 2023 organization will not provide spotters.

In an effort to promote a higher level of safety for competition athletes, is highly recommended that all the University teams will have their own spotter(s) on the competition floor. However, the use of spotters is not mandatory and is discretionary to the coach.

Guidelines for Spotters:

1. Should only be used during the stunt, pyramid, and/or basket toss sections. Spotters should stand at the back of the floor when not spotting those sections.
2. Should not touch, assist, or save skills being performed.
3. Spotters should only be used to prevent a fall to the competition floor.
4. Spotters are not allowed to count or coach while on the floor.
5. Should be dressed so that they are presentable, professional, and distinguishable from the performing athletes (should not wear clothing similar to the performing team's uniform).
6. Should not dress or act in a manner that distracts from the athletes and their performance.
7. Should be at least 18 years old, listed on the official event roster and familiar with spotting the skills of the performing team.

14. WIUC COMPETITION RULES

While the final details and schedule of any competition could require up to the day adjustments, and all guidelines are subject to change based, please be assured that the WIUC is committed to delivering the same quality of competition experience for which we are known. We appreciate your understanding of the flexibility this will require. By accepting the Terms&Conditions as the authorized person from my program I agree and acknowledge to abide by the WIUC Competition Rules.
